

Want to learn more about what is written about our neighborhood? Check out these books!

All books available at the Durham County Library. Coloring book and neighborhood cookbook also available from Trinity Park Neighborhood Association.

1. Good Morning, Miss Dove - Frances Gray Patton; illustrated by Garrett Price. New York: Dodd, Mead 1954. (based on a real teacher at George Watts Elementary School)
2. Trinity College, Durham, NC. Illustrated - Trinity College 1912.
3. The Way We Lived: Durham, 1900-1920 - James G. Leyburn. Elliston, VA. : Northcross House, 1989.
4. Fit for a King - Sara Barker Circle of the Kings Daughters. Durham, NC. 1972.
5. Trinity Park Coloring Book/Drawings - Marilyn Valenzuela; text by Linda Wilson. 1983?
6. From Pine Street to Watts Street: An Oral History of the Jews of Durham, North Carolina - Robin Gruber. 1986
7. Historic Properties Survey of Durham County - Jane E. Sheffield. Durham, NC: Durham County Inventory of Natural and Cultural Resources, 1986.
8. Views of Trinity Park High School, Durham, NC - Trinity Park High School. 1902.
9. Catalogue for the Year - Trinity Park High School. Durham, NC.
10. Map of North Durham Property of B.L. Duke, April 1901 [map] Durham County - Jean Bradley Anderson, Duke University Press, 1990.
11. Durham, A Pictorial History - by Joel A. Kostyu & Frank A. Kostyu. Norfolk, Va: Donning. C. 1978.
12. Good Taste: A Collection of Neighborhood Recipes - Trinity Park, Durham, NC. 2004.

(If you have information on other books, please contact Julia Borbely-Brown at julia.borbelybrown@yahoo.com.)