- There was much discussion on what to do with the newsletter, if ads are barely covering the costs. Whether it should be smaller or entirely electronic. We will discuss it further.
- Adam will add payment to Watts School for meetings ($1000) and $2000 for Pops in the Park, with the proviso that they may be taken out of reserves, as needed.
 - We will vote on it in the meeting in January before the actual meeting.
- Adam will discuss

INC ~ Philip Azar

- Update:
- 1. New INC officers
 - President -- Bonita Green
 - Vice President -- David Eklund
 - Secretary -- Pat Carstensen
 - Treasurer -- Susan Sewell
 - At-Large Executive Committee -- Sarah Morris, Vanessa Mason Evans
 - Communications -- Pakis Bessias
 - Past President -- Will Wilson
- 2. The November and December meetings are combined to meet December 7th. The main attraction is that a representative from the Planning Department will be there, mostly to present what the department presented and to answer questions submitted in advance, but I suspect there will be time for questions submitted that night.
- 3. A motion for the restated bylaws is on the floor. I suspect it will be February before it is voted on. I am to do a summary memo of major changes for the meeting on the 7th. The rewritten bylaws still need final changes to conform to NC General Statutes on technical matters. The current draft reflects policy decisions of the bylaw committee that have been briefed to full INC and, I believe, the TPNA board.

Safety ~ Ron Gallagher

- From an email:
 - Probably most worrisome are three daytime residential burglaries on North Duke late last month. They happened in the 1300 block on Nov. 25 and in the 1100 and 1200 blocks on Monday (Nov. 29).
 - I've asked the Community Resource officer at District 5, who has been given District 2 almost (all of TP), for an update on the Oct. 6 hit-and-run at West Markham and North Duke that badly injured a neighborhood resident, but I haven't heard back. I never got a reply to my October email to her, so I'm not optimistic about the phone call.
 - We had a couple of car thefts last month and the usual crop of car breaking and/or entering. There's been a discussion on the listserv recently about this ongoing problem and the apparent sophistication of the criminals' knowledge of what cars have alarms that will sound and what triggers it. The advice is the usual: Lock your car, please, and don't leave attractive things in the car. Both of those are drudge work, things you just have to make a point of everyday living in a city. And it won't stop the problem completely, and that's frustrating at best. But, I don't have any other advice.
 - The season of the porch pirate is approaching, so it's time to start taking ion packages as soon as you are notified that they've arrived. I know that's standard with Amazon. I also get text messages from FedEx when a package is out for delivery and when it's arrived. If you can't have anyone home to do that, consider having packages delivered to your work or to a neighbor who will be home or to the Amazon lockers outside Whole Foods or to the FedEx office on Ninth Street for you to pick up.
